Old Business:

Tom explained that we need to get out the need for volunteers for the annual auction to be held on April 27th. No club meeting on Friday the 26th. The Red Cross building will be open at 6pm for people to load items for the auction. Mike (k2jml) will tend the door, but we will be needing the following items

Dolly, Hand Cart, wagon to help move auction items to the auction room. Traffic cones to block the street for unloading, volunteers to help unload and set up tables and chairs in the room. We will need coffee, cups, coffee pot, ice chest and ice, water bottles, PA system Mike?, budget of $50 has been set. Saturday door opens at 7am Mike(k2jml) to keep door open but volunteers needed again with carts, dolly etc to move items to the auction room. Auction starts at 9am goes to 1pm. All items not sold are the responsibility of the owner to remove from Red Cross. Doug (Treas) to make arrangements for change needed; Registration of buyers/sellers. Payout funds with 10% going to the club with 90% payout to seller. Additional donations are accepted. Treas will need an assistant at the table to help with the funds.. A 5013c receipt will be made available for donations Treasurer will record amounts as usual. Please offer to volunteer at the April Meeting.
